Learning objectives:

By studying this paper the readers will be able to:
1. Recognize all common and rare clinical manifestation of patients with hemophilia
2. Categorize patients with hemophilia and cite clinical manifestation of each group
3. Ask key questions during interview with the patients and their family
4. Order correct screening tests to make diagnosis of hemophilia
5. Differentiate between hemophilia and other similar clinical diseases such as von Willebrand disease
6. Interpret complete screening tests
7. Have proper knowledge of the correct sampling for coagulation studies
8. Acquire knowledge about factor VIII molecule and its function in coagulation cascade

Target groups:
The following group will make benefit by reading the paper: General physicians, Clinicians in internal medicine (MD), Hematologists, Pathologists, Medical laboratory scientists (PhD, MSc, BSc)